Name:	Hannah Hurrell
Role:	Commissioning and Partnerships
Date of Decision:	14 August 2025

1. Background

1. Stamp Out Spiking is a registered charity based in Devon and Cornwall and established to tackle the increasing incidents of spiking across the UK and worldwide. It includes a team, with professional experience in delivering alcohol and drug awareness workshops, concentrating on the welfare of young people. They exist to highlight the dangers of spiking and offer effective and practical solutions to keep people safe in pubs, clubs, house parties, festivals and beyond.
2. The £6k one-off grant funding ending in March 2026 will be used to:
  - Delivering a spiking training session for the OPCC team to be arranged in the Autumn 2025.
  - Support for victims – OPCC will help to connect 'Stamp out Spiking' with the Victim Care Unit to enable police referrals for practical and emotional support.
  - Work in collaboration with victim services to enable shared services and explore opportunities to join up.
3. Strategic police and crime plan objectives that the direct award will support:
  - Ensure that offenders and repeat perpetrators who cause the most harm are identified and managed effectively, working with partners to address the links to drugs and alcohol
  - Work with partners to identify, support and rehabilitate those causing the most disruptions linked to drink and drugs use

- Work regionally to gather intelligence to enhance the 'ring of steel' and stop drug networks coming through our countryside and coasts
